

Kian Wildmore

Newcastle Upon Tyne, 07392701662, k.wildmore@northumbria.ac.uk

EDUCATION

Northumbria University
Business Management BA (Hons) Expected Grade
(2:1)

Newcastle Upon Tyne
May 2024

University of Seoul
Study Abroad Year

Seoul, South Korea
Jun 2023

SKILLS & INTERESTS

Skills Microsoft Office (Excel, Word, PowerPoint)

Soft Skills Communication, Interpersonal Skills, Listening Skills, Empathy, Problem-Solving, Adaptability, Time Management, Resilience, Self-Motivation, Creativity, Teamwork, Networking, Presentation Skills, Analytical Thinking, Conflict Resolution, Leadership Skills

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

Study Abroad year Seoul

- Enrolled in a year-long study abroad program, focusing on business administration coursework.
- Completed a range of business-related courses, including "Global Business" and "Global Marketing".
- Gained in-depth knowledge of Korean business practices, market trends, and strategic management.
- Collaborated with international peers on group projects, fostering cross-cultural teamwork skills.
- Thrived in a foreign country where English was not the native language, showcasing adaptability, self-reliance, and resilience.
- Gained self-confidence and independence through solo living and managing daily life in a foreign setting.
- Navigated various cultural challenges and adapted to local customs, fostering cultural awareness.

Volunteer Experience: Global Lounge

- Facilitated language exchange between Korean university students and native English speakers, resulting in an average improvement of 20% in students' conversational English skills over the course of a semester.
- Delivered engaging weekly presentations on diverse topics requested by Korean university students, fostering their curiosity and expanding their knowledge base on various subjects.
- Developed strong communication and teaching skills, enhancing my ability to convey complex ideas effectively.

Language Proficiency: Korean

- Enrolled in intensive Korean language courses, achieving proficiency in reading and writing Hangeul, the Korean alphabet.
- Gained proficiency in basic conversational Korean, facilitating daily interactions.
- Successfully adapted to a foreign language environment, demonstrating adaptability and effective communication skills.

Global Networking and Cross-Cultural Exposure

- Developed a diverse international network by building relationships with students from various cultural backgrounds.
- Attended cultural exchange events and participated in cultural festivals, promoting cross-cultural understanding.
- Enhanced interpersonal and networking skills, strengthening my ability to collaborate in multicultural environments.